

In the silent heart
of my being, may I find Peace.

In the quiet of the grove, may I share
the Peace.

Delicately,
in the great circle
of humanity,
may I radiate
Peace.

Aimée passed away in an other world. Certainly, I still mourn a little the loss of this unique being that is a Mother. Mine was a great lady, a guardian angel who watched over us in her silent presence. I know that her soul is in peace and that the Ancestors welcomed her with joy and pride.

The farewell ceremony took place in peace and tenderness. That is what my mother is leaving behind. Now the path will continue in her eyes and her silent and caring presence to which she has been preparing us for several years. She will be eternally there in our hearts and minds, in the breath of life.

Thank you for all your messages of support and love that are a balm on our hearts. ❤️ Claire
